Yes, the MOUG is alive!

Thank you for your interest in a MOUG membership.

Now, to save $15.00 on conference fees, it's time to join the MOUG or renew your membership for 2003. (Note: Our records do not currently show your membership as active)

Choose one:

Individual membership $20.00 Individual memberships are non-transferable. They cannot be reassigned to another person during the year. If an employee changes jobs, the membership stays with that person.

Corporate Membership $60.00 (includes up to three individuals) Corporate memberships can be reassigned during the year and always stay with the organization. It's possible, for example, to send 3 employees to the first regional meeting of the year (and apply the member's discount), then send 3 different people to the second meeting and continue to take the discount.
